What we offer you

The Division of Dermatology, University of Ottawa and Laserderm offers a 1 year training program in laser surgery for dermatologists certified by the Royal College, the American Board, or international medical graduates who obtain equivalency from the Royal College of Canada.

Dr. Laughlin played a lead role in developing treatment protocols for several laser manufacturers on how to best use their systems in most of the procedures you may need.

The resident/fellow will act as a consultant in cutaneous laser surgery and medicine, and will supervise medical and non-medical personnel in the operation of a laser facility that meets the required provincial or national standards.
